

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

Central European Geology (formerly Acta Geologica Hungarica) is an English-language quarterly publishing papers on geological topics. Besides papers on outstanding scientific achievements, on the main lines of geological research in Hungary, and on the geology of Central Europe, reports on workshops of geological research, on major scientific meetings, and on contributions to international research projects will be accepted.

Only original papers will be published and a copy of the Copyright Transfer Statement will be sent to the authors of papers accepted for publication. Manuscripts will be processed only after receiving the signed copy of the statement.

Manuscripts are to be sent to the Editorial Office for refereeing, editing, in two typewritten copies, on floppy disk with two printed copies, or by E-mail. Manuscripts written by the following word processors will be accepted: MS Word, or ASCII format. Acceptance depends on the opinion of two referees and the decision of the Editorial Board.

Form of manuscripts

The paper completed with abstract, figures, tables, and bibliography should not exceed 25 pages (25 double-spaced lines with 3 cm margins on both sides).

The first page should include:

- the title of the paper (with minuscule letters)
- the full name of the author
- the name of the institution and city where the work was prepared
- an abstract of not more than 200 words
- a list of five to ten key words
- a footnote with the postal address of the author

The SI (System International) should be used for all units of measurements.

References

In text citations the author's name and the year of the publication between brackets should be given. The reference list should contain the family name, a comma, the abbreviation of the first name, the year of publication, and a colon. This is followed by the title of the paper. Paper titles are followed – after a long hyphen – by periodical title, volume number, and inclusive page numbers. For books the title (English version), the name of the publisher, the place of publication, and the number of pages should be given.

Figures and tables

Figures and tables should be referred to in the text. Figures are expected in the size of the final type-area of the quarterly (12.6 × 18.6 cm) or proportionally magnified 20–25% camera ready quality. Figures and photos should be attached in electronic format, and can be in any of the following extension formats: *.eps, *.tif, or *.jpg. Figures should be clear line drawings or good quality black-and-white photographic prints. Colour photographs will also be accepted, but the extra cost of reproduction in colour must be borne by the authors. The author's name and figure number should be indicated on each figure. Tables should be typed on separate sheets with a number. The authors may offer colour photographs for the cover page.

Proof and reprints

The authors will be sent a set of proofs. Each of the pages should be proofread, signed, and returned to the Editorial Office within a week of receipt. Twenty-six reprints are supplied free of charge, additional reprints may be ordered.

Authors can use the Open Art (optional open article) publication model for a specific publishing fee. Full-text of an OpenArt paper is freely accessible through the official website of the journal. These papers are also published in the printed journals as well as all the traditional ones. Peer-review process and quality requirements are the same in case of both traditional and OpenArt manuscripts. Both accepted new manuscripts and papers published earlier can be OpenArt.

The price of an OpenArt article is 900 EUR (1260 USD) + VAT, where applicable, but it can be even less. Akadémiai Kiadó offers 50% discount for corresponding authors of a) subscribing institutions, b) Hungarian institutions, c) institutions of low- and middle-income countries. Discounts may not be combined, all these authors should pay 450 EUR (630 USD). The above OpenArt fee does not include any normal (excess) page fees and colour charges.

By executing the Optional Open Article Agreement and paying the OpenArt fee the Author retains the ownership and further rights related to the Article while ensures the wide accessibility of the Article in the written and electronic media controlled by Akadémiai Kiadó.
